

Dear Parent/carer,

Are you interested in training to become a teacher?

Your school is part of a growing number of educational institutions leading the way for more school-led teacher training. Being able to closely work with and support who we train as teachers helps us in delivering the best outcomes for the students in our schools.

We have vacancies now to start training from September 2018 and we would be very interested to hear from you if you are thinking of becoming a teacher, or know someone who is. We're looking for people who have (or will have) a degree, have a passion for teaching and want to inspire young people to fulfil their potential.

Our programme does not involve travelling to a university, all our training is delivered here on The Fylde Coast.

We'd love you to come and have a chat with us about the exciting teacher training opportunities available in primary, secondary and post-16.

If teaching is a career you would like to pursue, then please get in touch with our programme leaders:

Jenny McKinnon on scitt@breck.lancs.sch.uk for all primary enquires

Aly Spencer on aly.spencer@fctsa.co.uk for all secondary and post 16 enquires.

Jenny and Aly would be delighted to chat to you about the courses available and future opportunities in teaching.

Alternatively come along to our open event. Breck Primary School are holding a teacher training open day on Wednesday 21st March, 1.00-5.00. There is no need to make an appointment, please feel free to drop in and find out more about the programme.

We can also provide you with support and advice on your application form and offer you guidance on how to arrange school experience if you just want a taster of what teaching could be like.

For further information on what becoming a teacher might involve more generally, you can also visit www.education.gov.uk/get-into-teaching.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely

Aly Spencer
